| 2 | The offender has violated the mandatory supervision condition which states ' The defendant shall not possess a firearm or destructive device. Probation must be revoked for possession of a firearm. ' |

As detailed in Violation #1, Baskerville, a convicted felon, unlawfully possessed firearm(s).

- 3           The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the Court or Probation Officer.'

During the commission of the offense detailed in Violation #1, the offender traveled to Virginia without being granted permission by the Probation Office.

- 4           The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall notify the Probation Officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.'

The offender failed to notify the undersigned Probation Officer about the arrest detailed in Violation #1 within the allotted time period. Moreover, no one alerted Probation on his behalf.

A thorough record check revealed Baskerville had additional contact with law enforcement which went unreported to Probation. Specifically, on March 16, 2011, he was issued a summary offense citation for drinking in public by the East Orange, New Jersey Police Department. Then, on April 2, 2011, during a motor vehicle traffic stop conducted by the Bloomfield, New Jersey Police Department, he was issued two tickets (careless driving and failure to report an accident).

- 5           The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall report to the Probation Officer as directed by the Court or Probation Officer, and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.'

The offender failed to report to the Probation Office as directed on October 4, 2011. In addition, he failed to submit a monthly written report within the allotted time period for the following months: June 2010, August 2010 - May 2011, August 2011, and October 2011.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
